VMI starts partnership with Perron038

A successful student project at Perron038 turned into a partnership with VMI this month. The open innovation center for the manufacturing industry in Zwolle, Perron038, offers an inspiring environment to share knowledge. The combination of education, students and business at Perron038 is exactly what adds value for VMI. The results are positive and can be used directly within our company. We look forward to a fruitful cooperation for both VMI and Perron038.

Perron038 is the innovation centre for the manufacturing industry in the Zwolle region. For more information on this cooperation: read more
